DAILY PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

SATTRDAY AFTERNOON, DEC. 14, 1833.

COURT HOUSE.—We ask the attention our readers to the communication of "A citizen of Allegheny county."

In October last, we stated as reasons for the very large vote given to Messrs. Robinson, Kerr, &c., in Elizabeth township, and Allegheny town, that an impression existed in the former place, that those gentlemen were favorable to the formation of a new county, taken partly from Allegheny, and in the latter place, that some of those gentlemen would favor the removal of the Court House to that borough.—This the editor of the Mercury boldly denied; as we knew, however, that his word was valued only about as much as a counterfeit note on the Muttontown bank, we deemed a reply unnecessary, and determined to watch the result. What that result is, as to Elizabeth township, will be seen, upon reference to the proceedings of the Legislature, in another column of our paper.—Messrs. Robinson and Scott have each presented a petition in favor of a division of the county.—It will also be seen that a correspondent in this paper refers to a petition, which is in circulation, in relation to the Court House.

SAMUEL M'KEAN.—The editor of the Mercury thinks that we will suffer some disappointment in the course of this new Senator.—"Blessed are they who expect little." We cannot be greatly disappointed—we expected but little from General M'Kean—we know too well the corrupting influence of Jacksonism—we have seen too much base treachery, and abandonment of every thing like principle, for the last four or five years, to rely much upon the integrity of any man who has held communion with the men who rule at Washington. We, therefore, expect nothing more from Gen. M'Kean than a steady and unflinching opposition to the schemes of the Magician of New York. He has committed himself so decidedly against that man, that he dare not, even if he would, send in his adhesion. He has denounced him too strongly, and too deliberately, to dare to contribute to his advancement.

Mr. M'Kean, in December, 1832, declared that he had, from his situation, near the New York line, been well acquainted with the politics of that state, and the character of Martin Van Buren; and that he knew him to be a bad and dangerous man. This was deliberately written, in a letter, intended for publication, and has been frequently repeated since.

Now, we would ask the editor of the Mercury, if it is at all probable that the new Senator can, under any circumstances, give any aid to the cause of the Magician. Suppose, even, that Mr. M'Kean were destitute of integrity, and entirely regardless of his own reputation, would not that very want of integrity render him more suspicious of the rectitude of others. Mr. Van Buren might be willing to make great promises—what security could he give for their performance.

COMMUNICATED.

CROSS CUT CANAL.

Mr. Miller, Chairman of the Committee on Internal Improvement, in the House of Representatives, was a Delegate from Philadelphia to the Convention at Warren; and General Lacock, President of that Convention, is on the same Committee. One of our members, Mr. Robinson, was also a Delegate, and another, Mr. Hilands, is known to have entertained, for many years, a very decided opinion in favor of the rout and mode of communication between the two Canals which has been finally selected. We have every reason to hope, therefore, that the subject will not be permitted to slumber.

The brief but significant allusion of Governor Wolf to the benefits which may be expected to flow to Pennsylvania from "forcing the Ohio Canal to become tributary to her own extensive improvements," shows that the subject has engaged his earnest attention; and it is known that the Canal Commissioners are deeply impressed with its importance. Indeed, the sentiment may be considered as universal, which was expressed by Senator Wilkins, at the great meeting in this place, viz:—that, until the communication be opened, our Canal "may be considered as only half done."

The present position of the matter is such as, perhaps, to render legislative action desirable, if not necessary. By the terms of the charter of the "Pennsylvania and Ohio Canal Company," for making this connection, it is required that there be a continuous unbroken canal communication between Pittsburgh and the Ohio Canal. This must be effected by the Company within a prescribed time, unless it be done by the state of Pennsylvania, or the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company. Now, a part of the work has already been executed by the State of Pennsylvania, viz: from Beaver to Newcastle, and it is believed, therefore, that the state would be unwilling that the portion, between this place and Beaver, should be in the hands of a private Company, thus breaking the continuity of the Pennsylvania works, and isolating, as it were, a part of the public property. Until this be ascertained, and the precise extent of the work necessary to be done, in fulfilment of the charter, finally known, it will be probably deemed inexpedient to open the Books for subscriptions.—Fortunately, the portion between Beaver and Pittsburgh is common to the Cross Cut, and to the proposed work to Erie, so that no conflict of views can reasonably be apprehended. Our members, though unclogged by instructions, will doubtless represent faithfully the feelings of their constituents by a conciliatory and candid temper, in reference to the general subject of internal improvement, and by the very reverse of any thing like a narrow minded jealousy.

For the Gazette.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

Great excitement and foul conjectures have arisen, in both city and county, from a report that the Commissioners have declined the responsibility of selecting a situation for the public buildings, but more particularly from the report of a petition being sent to the Legislature, praying for a Law, authorizing the Governor to appoint three or five Commissioners, with power to select the cite in the city, or vicinity of Piitsburgh.

How the above reports originated, I cannot tell; and not having seen the petition, must confess, has created suspicions in my mind, that the interest of a particular quarter, and not convenience of the county generally, is the object contemplated. Having heard so much, I expected long since, to have seen something done, that would preclude the possibility of any thing like management. In a business in which the county will have to pay in equity, the convenience of the county should be consulted. In order therefore to arouse the apathy that seems to prevail, I propose that some active citizens in each township, originate a petition to the Legislature, praying for a Law authorizing each election district in the county, (at their township election in March,) to elect a Commissioner for the purpose of selecting ground for the public buildings in the city of Pittsburgh, or in the vicinity of said city; a majority of said township Commissioners to be necessary to a choice. This method will, it is thought, preclude the possibility of management, and should it not meet the approbation of the county, will, it is hoped, immediately (as delay is dangerous) elicit from more able hands, a suitable remedy for the evil apprehended. If so, the writer will consider his first essay for public use, amply remunerated.

A CITIZEN OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

The Senate proceedings of yesterday will be found to possess some interest. That body has taken into its own hands the appointment of its committees; not, it is evident, out of any disrespect to the presiding officer, or want of confidence in him, but upon the true representative principle.

In the House of Representatives, no business was done, after the communication of the death of the Hon. Mr. Singleton, a member of that body.—Nat. Intel. December 11.

We would rather be in exile, and shut out from the society of man for the remainder of our lives, than be one of the "Government Directors"—alias —"spies," who, in the plenitude of their officia-intermeddling, and the fullness of a partisan zeal-have so egregiously imposed on the country, misled the President, and "damn'd themselves,to everlasting fame."—What monuments some men build for themselves! And how often, after they are completed, do those who fancied they would stand, in all time, as pillars of enviable fame, wish, that before they began their creation, their hands had been palsied, and their scheme blasted by some merciful interposition of heaven, or of man. So feel, or we are mistaken, the Government Directors.—Com. Her.

Extract from a letter, dated

WASHINGTON CITY, December 7th, 1833.

The following is the course which I think will be pursued in Congress on several subjects. The first question which will present itself is the Public Printing. Kendall & Co. have determined to vacate the election of GALES & SEATON as printers to the House of Representatives, and elect in their stead FRANCIS P. BLAIR! In this they will be defeated, and the causes producing such defeat, are to be found in the present state of affairs relating to the next Presidency. If the motion to displace GALES & SEATON had been made on Monday, it would have been carried in defiance of its manifest injustice and the general odium which would have attached to the proceeding;—but the time has now passed by.

The next subject of excitement will be the nomination of Mr. TANEY to be Secretary of the Treasury. If the Senate should be full when the vote is taken on his nomination, he will be rejected by a vote 27 to 21! This will be a merited punishment for the prostitution of great talents and an untarnished name, to the furtherance of base political and stock jobbing purposes.

The great contest in relation to replacing the public money in the Bank of the U. States will then come on; and as that institution has now determined not to come before the present Congress for a recharter, it will be fought exclusively on constitutional grounds, involving the right of the executive to seize upon the public purse, in defiance of the laws of the land, and the resolutions of the immediate Representatives of the people.—As this discussion will be entirely separate from the question of rechartering the Bank, and as the inexpediency of the removal of the deposits is now, in a measure, admitted even by the Globe itself, I feel a deep conviction that if not prematurely brought to a close, it will result in a vote in favor of their restoration even in the House of Representatives.—N. Y. Cour. & Enquirer.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

Monday, Dec. 9.—In Senate, Mr. Cunningham presented a petition from the Trustees of Allegheny College, praying for relief. Referred to Committee on Education. Also, a memorial from the Philadelphia Delegation to the Warren Convention, for the extension of the Pennsylvania Canal to the state of Ohio. Referred to the Committee on Inland Navigation.

Tuesday, Dec. 10.—Mr. Smith offered the following resolution:—

Resolved, That the Canal Commissioners be instructed to report to the Senate their opinion in regard to what motive power it will be most expedient to use on the Pennsylvania Rail Road; and also a system of regulations by which the traveling on said road shall be regulated.

Saturday, Dec. 7.—In the House of Representatives, Mr. Weigand presented a petition for an appropriation to the Butler and Pittsburgh Turnpike Road; also one for the appointment of a Notary Public in the county of Allegheny.

Mr. Robinson, one for a Savings Bank,and Trust Company, in the city of Pittsburgh; also one for a new county, to be formed out of Allegheny, Fayette, Washington, and Westmoreland; also one from ——— for encouragement for some locomotive machinery.

Monday, Dec. 9.—Mr. Kerr presented a petition from Pittsburgh, for a repeal of so much of the act of 1833, entitled "an act to continue in force the district courts of Pittsburgh."

Mr. Weigand, one of like import.

Mr. Scott, one for the formation of a new county out of Washington, Fayette, Westmoreland, and Allegheny.

Mr. Moorhead, one of like import.

Mr. Mathiot, do. do.

Mr. Wallace offered a resolution, instructing the Canal Commissioners to report to the House their opinion of the advantages the state would derive from the extension of the Pennsylvania Canal to Lake Erie, according to the original design, which was adopted.

Tuesday, Dec. 10.—Mr. Love presented four petitions, for the formation of a new county out of parts of Washington, Fayette, Allegheny, and Westmoreland.

Mr. Clarke, of Beaver, offered a resolution, instructing the Canal Commissioners to examine and report their opinion of the advantages the State would derive from a connection of the Pennsylvania and Ohio Canal, which was adopted.

Governor Wolf's Message presents, says the N. York Star, a very flattering picture of the prosperity of our great sister State, with the exception of the almost total and unaccountable neglect of provisions for public schools; near half a million persons, that is more than one third the population, being without the advantages of the common rudiments of education. Meanwhile the not less important policy of canal and rail road communication has advanced with giant strides, that may well excite our admiration, if not apprehension who shall finally take the mastery of the great Western trade, Pennsylvania, Maryland, or New York.—Poulson.

TWENTY THIRD CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

Monday, Dec. 9.—In Senate, Members elect were reported—Messrs. Preston, of S. Carolina; M'Kean, of Pennsylvania; Webster, of Massachusetts; and Southard, of N. Jersey. The credentials of Mr. Robbins were referred to a Committee.

Mr. Lowry was unanimously re-elected Secretary to the Senate, and John Spackford was elected Sergeant at arms and door keeper, and Stephen Haight, assistant door keeper.

The appointment of Chaplain was postponed until Tuesday.

Mr. Benton moved a resolution calling for information of the Secretary of the Treasury relative to the amount of public money deposited in the United States Bank, which call, on motion of Mr. Clay, was ordered to lie on the table; it being desirable that the country should know the condition of other Banks, as well as that of the United States.

Mr. Calhoun presented a bill to repeal the act of the last session providing for the collection of duties on imports, which passed to a second reading.

Mr. Benton presented a bill granting to the State of Missouri a certain quantity of land for purposes of internal improvement—also, a joint resolution relating to an alteration of the Constitution of the United States, relative to the election of President and Vice President, (which was laid on the table;) also, a bill to graduate the prices of public lands, passed to a second reading.

Mr. Webster gave notice that he would, on to morrow, introduce a bill for compensating certain citizens of the United States for French spoliations upon Commerce.

The rule (34th) relating to the appointment of Standing Committees was taken up for consideration. The Senate adjourned without determining the question. The amendment proposed refers to the appointment of Committees to the Senate by ballot, and takes it from the Chairman. Were the Vice President present, the Senate would elect its Committees. In his absence the Chair appoints. A bad arrangement. Mr. Van Buren, or any other Vice President, can appoint through a congenial chairman. This ought not to be.

Tuesday, December 10.—In Senate, Mr. Benton gave notice that he should, to morrow, ask leave to introduce a bill to regulate and fix the pay of the medical staff of the Army of the U. States.

Mr. Webster, presented a memorial from the citizens of Cincinnati, praying that Congress would purchase the private interests in the stock of the Louisville and Portland Canal.

This subject, Mr. W. said, had been acted on last Session, and a favorable report had been made by a Committee. He would only move for the present to lay the memorial on the table and print it; and, at some future day, he would move some further disposition of the memorial.

The memorial was then laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Condition of the Banks.—On motion of Mr. Clay, the following resolution offered by Mr. Benton, was taken up for consideration:

"Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to report to the Senate—

1. A statement of the amount of public moneys in the Bank of the United States, at the end of each month for each year from the establishment of the Bank to the present time;

2. The average amount of the same for each year;

3. The average of the same for the whole time."

Mr. Clay then moved to amend the resolution by adding as follows:

"And Resolved also, That the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to report to the Senate the names of all Banks, and where they are respectively situated, which have been selected by him, in place of the Bank of the U. States, as depositories of the public money; the amount of the capital of the said Banks respectively; distinguishing between what has been actually paid in by the Stockholders, and what has not been paid; the amount of public money in each of the said Banks on the first of October, the first of November, and the first of December, 1833, distinguishing between the same standing to the credit of the U. States, and those standing to the credit of any public officer, or other disbursing agent of the Government; the amount of debts due from each of the said Banks, on each of the days aforesaid, the amount of notes in circulation, and the amount of specie in their vaults, respectively; the names of the Stockholders in each of the said Banks on the first day of September and the first day of October last, distinguishing between foreigners and citizens of the United States, the mode in which transfers of the public money were made from the Bank of the United States to the said Banks respectively, whether by warrant or otherwise; if by warrant, whether they were issued in pursuance of appropriations previously made by law, and whether any such transfers were requested by the said Banks, or either of them, or made by the Treasury, to sustain the credit of the said Banks, or any of them; and a copy of all correspondence between the Department of the Treasury and the said Banks, or either of them, relating to the said transfers, or any of them; at what periods the several charters, so designated as depositories of the public money, expire; copies of the said charters; and whether the Secretary of the Treasury has been able to obtain, at all the parts of the U. States at which Banks are established, the consent of Banks to receive, as deposits, the public money, upon such conditions as he approves; and, if not, at what parts has he been unable to obtain such consent."

Mr. Clay said that the amendment he had offered embraced a great variety of information; perhaps not all, however, which might be required by every Senator. In order to afford time for examination, and for making any additions to the call, he would move to lay the resolution on the table, and print the amendment.

REMOVAL OF DEPOSITS.

Mr. Clay offered the following resolution. He believed that by the rule of the Senate it would have to lie one day. His object was to discover who it was that had made the removal of the deposits.

Resolved, That the President of the U. States be requested to inform the Senate, whether a paper under date the 18th day of September, 1833, purporting to have been read by him to the Heads of the several Departments, relating to the deposits of the public money in the Treasury of the United States, and alleged to have been published by his authority, be genuine or not; and if it be genuine, that he be also requested to cause a copy of the said paper to be laid before the Senate.

The resolution lies on the table.

Mr. Taney's Reasons.—Recalling to the reader's mind the fact that one main reason why the present Secretary of the Treasury could not conscientiously keep his hands off the public deposits until Congress met, was, that the charter of the Bank of the United States was to expire so early as in the year 1836, we ask his attention to a case still stronger than that of our district banks, (already referred to,) showing the shallowness of this plea on the part of the honorable Secretary: the bank selected by Mr. Kendall for Mr. Secretary Taney's use, in the city of Baltimore, is the Union bank of Maryland. The charter of that bank will expire on the 1st day of January, 1835, more than a year sooner than that of the Bank of the United States! What becomes, we again ask, of this cogent argument of the Secretary for anticipating the action of the people's representatives on the subject of the public money? As reasons for the exercise of a stupendous power, is it not trifling with congress to offer to them such arguments as this?

Speaking of the Baltimore pet bank, we should like to know how much money that bank has lent to any department of the Government; what sort of security has been given for the loan; and under the authority of what law the loan was made?—We would put the same question to the pet banks in Philadelphia, in New York, and Boston, and we hope that each of them, or some one of them, will to these questions true aswer make.—Nat. Intel.

Bank of the United States.—We learn, from a source entitled to credit, that the President and Directors of this institution have determined not to apply for a recharter during the present session of Congress; nor indeed is it at all probable that they will make any application for a re-charter while the present Congress is in being.—N. Y. Cour. & Enq.

The crooked streets of Boston are proverbial. Not many years since, says the New Bedford Gazette, the town of —— sent a new Representative to the General Court, who had never been in that city of tortuosities. He started at the usual time, for the capital, to watch over the interests of his constituents, who were not a little surprised at seeing him back in less than a fortnight after he set out. On being asked the cause of his return, he replied, that he "staid in the city ten days—wore out his boots—eat up all his bread and cheese.—could'nt find the State House—and so he tho't it was best to return and report progress!"

The Evening Star thus playfully rebukes the Editors of the National Intelligencer for not honoring a distinguished paper, and its no less renowned Editor.—Philad. Herald.

The National Intelligencer affects never to have heard of the Johnstown Herald. Mere affectation. Billy Button, the editor of that paper, is the only taylor in this State, who mends breeches and the constitution, cabbages cloth and paragraphs at the same time. The Regency have appointed him Clerk of the Assembly; and, although the Members of Assembly, it is supposed, elect the Clerk, and they do not meet for twenty days, yet mark our prediction, Billy Button will be stitched into that office, nolens volens. Not know the Johnstown Herald!—the very twist and buckram of the Regency?—Pooh!"

Havana—The brig Baltic arrived at Savannah on the 30th ult. furnishes the following extracts of letters, dated

Havana, Nov. 18.—"Business generally is extremely dull, we are as it were between the crops, therefore we may so continue until our Sugars come forward and our Coffee is more abundant. The demand for the latter appears to be at present for the market of New Orleans. The price has declined a little, the crop however will prove short, and we believe the prices will range from 11 to 12½ if there should even be no extra demand for Europe. Rice we fear will continue an unprofitable article of shipment."

Nov. 18.—"We have nothing new or of interest to communicate. Our market continues bad for Rice, and Coffee has less demand than when we last wrote you. The crop will be one half less on this side of the Island than the last."

LATER FROM SPAIN.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The brig Baltimore, from Bordeaux, arrived yesterday, left that place on the 28th October, but brings no papers later than the 25th, and these do not contain any news. The captain and passengers, however, state that 40,000 French troops were passing through Bordeaux on the 27th October, on their way to the frontiers of Spain; the interference of the French government having been asked by the queen.—Should this information be fully substantiated, we should argue from it that the party of Don Carlos had become more imposing than our last advices gave reason to suppose. The Bordeaux papers state that, up to the 20th, Madrid continued tranqnil. Martial law had been declared in the province of Navarre.—Poulson.

The Beaver Division of Canal is now, we believe, in such a state of forwardness, that were it expedient to keep the water in, could be navigated from Newcastle down to the head of the dam at the mouth of Beaver.—The water was admitted into the Canal around the falls last week, and every part of the line has been fully tested, and is found to have been constructed in a most substantial and permanent manner, and exceeds the expectations of the most sanguine. As soon at the spring business opens, it is in contemplation to establish a daily line of boats from Newcastle, principally for the conveyance of passengers, to connect with the steam boat line to Pittsburgh, and the stages to Erie and Cleveland. Such an undertaking we have no doubt will be profitable to those concerned —We wish all success to the enterprize.—Western Argus, Dec. 13.

We are pleased to learn that our industrious and enterprising neighbors at Economy, have determined to rebuild their large and extensive cotton factory, lately destroyed by fire, and that they have already commenced the good work. The wool growers of this and the neighboring Counties will be highly gratified at this intelligence.—Beaver Argus.

What a figure the new Secretary of the Treasury will make, if Mr. J. Q Adams should undertake a complete refutation of his Report on the removal of the Deposits?—Nat. Gaz.

Mr. Senator Benton has constituted himself vindicator of the President in the Senate. Considering certain passages in the past history of these two personages, there is in the undertaking much of that charity which "hopeth all things."

Another Ship arrived.—The ship Lotus, Capt. Watts, mentioned in our last, arrived here on Monday, in twenty days passage from Bath, Maine, with a cargo of hay consigned to R. L. Throckmorton. She will shortly depart with a cargo of cotton for Liverpool.—She is a fine substantial vessel of 300 tons burthen; and we hope that the "down east" state, [the third, if not the second in the union for shipping,] will send hither many more such.—Natchez Jour., Nov. 22.

FAIRBANK'S PLATFORM SCALES.

THESE scales are constructed upon an improved principle; are fitted up with great care by the manufacturers, and warranted to weigh with accuracy from half a pound to 12,000. Being placed in, and forming part of, the floor, the process of weighing is performed with ease and facility, while the space they occupy may be improved as a passage way or for other purposes.

The construction of these scales is such that they are little liable to derangement of wear, and their perfect operation will be guaranteed for any reasonable length of time.

The usual objection, that a new method of weighing cannot be safely entrusted to unskilful hands, is obviated by the use of the improved BALANCE, concerning which are the following remarks in the Journal of the Franklin Institute, of the state of Pennsylvania, for the promotion of the Mechanic Arts, for June, 1833. (Edited by Thos. P. Jones, M. D., late Superintendent of the Patent Office, at Washington, Professor of Mechanics in the Franklin Institute, &c.

"The Messrs. Fairbanks, some time since, obtained a patent for a Platform Weighing Machine, and this mode of adjuating and graduating the Beam of the Balance, and the weights, was devised by them with a view to its employment with the before mentioned machine. We have had an opportunity of examining one of their balances, and have been much pleased with it: this examination, however, was not necessary to the conviction that it possesses a just claim to the character of a real improvement, the whole arrangement being so simple as to enable any person to perceive that it is well adapted to the purpose contemplated, that of facilitating the business of weighing, and more especially of heavy articles."

The subscriber, as Agent, will receive orders for the above Scales, which will be made in this city to order. They can be seen at his Warehouse, No. 84, Front street.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

THE Subscribers, Trustees of the New Philadelphia Society, at Phillipsburgh, Beaver county, Pennsylvania, offer for sale the following property, to wit:

1	tract of land	containing	330 acres
1	do	do	330
1	do	do	67
1	do	do	7
1	do	do	40

other lots, containing about 6

The above lands lie in one body, fronting about two miles upon the Ohio river—immediately opposite the mouth of Big Beaver creek, and the Beaver Division of the Pennsylvania Canal. The land is rich, and a part of it under a high state of cultivation—its location pleasant and healthy. The improvements upon the same are valuable, including the town of Phillipsburgh, late the residence of Count Leon, and the New Philadelphia Society. The town contains about 40 Dwelling Houses, now in order; some of them brick houses and two stories high. A large and spacious Hotel, a Store house, Church, a number of Shops, for mechanics, Stables, Barns, and other out houses. Also, two large new buildings, lately erected, but not yet finished, one of brick, the other of frame (the latter suitable for a manufactory) a very extensive public garden, and also fruit trees of various kinds. The property has also attached to it the right of a ferry cross the Ohio, which is valuable, and becoming more so every day.

The above property is situated in the midst of a wealthy and prosperous country, distant about 28 miles below Pittsburgh, and one mile from Beaver, the seat of justice for Beaver county---and having a view for many miles up and down the Ohio, and of the country to a great distance around.

The subscribers are confident in saying that few situations could be found, presenting greater facilities to the farmer, mechanic, the manufacturer, and others--- a soil rich and productive---the neighborhood abounding in coal---well timbered and watered, and, by means of the Pennsylvania Canal, and steamboat navigation, a cheap and ready conveyance to market, and a communication with other places is ensured.

The property is susceptible of divisions into farms, or for the location of new towns, or for the extension of the present one.

Should it not be sold on or before the first day of January next, it will then be offered at public sale, upon the premises, to the highest and best bidder.

It will be sold in a body, or in parcels, to suit purchasers.

Terms of sale will be reasonable.

Information can be had by enquiring of the subscribers, two of whom live in the neighborhood, and one on the premises.

DOCTOR ROBERT'S

☞WELCH MEDICAMENTUM.☜

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn, It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness, Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,

From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.

UTICA, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXER.

ONE of the most agreeable and efficacious Medicines ever discovered for the permanent cure of those chronic states of derangement of the stomach, constituting that miserable disease called Dyspepsia.

The basis of this Elixer s vegetables, and perfectly innocent in its operation; it destroys that sour state of the stomach, the instant it is taken, and stops the morbid secretion, by giving strength to the muscular fibre of that important organ, by which means the peristaltic motion of the intestines is increased, and the coativeness obviated; a new action is given to the system, which puts an end to a train of distressing nervous sensations.

Another form of the disease in which the Elixer is admirably calculated to relieve, is the decline of fever, where the stomach will not bear the ordinary strengthening medicines indicated in such cases, it has the surprising effect of giving vigor, and restoring the natural secretions of the body, without increasing the febrile state. Not the least danger is to be apprehended from exposure to cold, while under the use of this medicine, nor will it interrupt necessary employment of the patient a single hour.

☞A number of cases of cures performed by the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixer in the vicinity of Pittsburgh can be given.

COMPOUND SYRUP OF LIVERWORT,

A SAFE and Valuable Medicine for Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Consumption, and Liver Complaints.

Most of the medicines made use of for the above diseases are of a stimulating nature, composed generally of Resins and Balsams, in alcoholic solutions, which, although sometimes givingt emporary relief, in almost every instance where they are freely used, aggravate the disease, and reduce the strength of the patient.

This article possesses superior advantages over these preparations, its action being of a tonic, invigorating and strengthening nature, thus overcoming the disease by promoting expectoration, and gradually increasing the strength of the patient, and thus, without being attended with any unpleasant effects: it also agrees with the stomach, in a cases, and is a pleasant medicine to take.

That part of Maryland lying west of the Blue Ridge; all that part of Virginia lying west of the Blue Ridge, except the county of Ohio. Rights to use the machine in that part of the United States, named above, will be sold by the single county or in larger districts. As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.
